

Dear All,

I provide below a link to an important AAT Business Update and ask that you watch this as soon as you can, ideally by the end of today for those of you who are working today, and asap for those returning from leave/other absence. Some of you may also like to digest the Business Update in written form, so a transcript of the video will be uploaded to the Intranet shortly.

Please regard this communication as strictly confidential to A A Thornton.

You should be able to view the video in your remote session, but if you copy and paste the link to the browser on your local laptop then you may find it works a little better. If viewing this email on a touch screen, then simply tap the link.

If you have any problems viewing the video then please send a report to:
support@aathornton.com

In addition to the AAT Business Update video, I have attached some information referred to in the video. The documents are also available with the HR General folder within DMS.

Adrian
